[1s] Let's learn some vocabulary.

[3s] The other day, I

[4s] was walking next to

[5s] a nice restaurant and
[6s] they had this sign

[7s] my husband said, "How tacky."

[8s] Why is the city making

[10s] restaurants put up this

[11s] awful sign? Tacky. Not [12s] in good taste. The

[14s] of this restaurant was

[15s] beautiful. They had great [16s] plants, great style and

[17s] this sign just ruined
[19s] Well, my son who is

[20s] five says, "What's tacky mean?"

[22s] And my husband said,

[23s] "Gauche!" And I'm like
[24s] what is my husband

[25s] thinking? My kids [26s] not going to

[27s] know "gauche". Something
[28s] that's gauche is

[30s] a little bit awkward. This

[31s] word seems it could be [33s] "gosh" but this

[34s] one is actually

[35s] "gauche". And Garish
[36s] means bright and

[37s] What a garish sign

[38s] to have to put

[39s] on the front of [40s] a beautifully styled restaurant.
